Composition Competition

Beginning in 2016, the OGS began an annual composition competition for young composers. This year we are happy to be running the 5th edition of this competition. The winning participant will not only receive a cash prize, but an opportunity to have their piece performed and published as well. The deadline for submission is October 1st. Please visit our website for more details!

Open Mic Nights

The OGS hosts an open mic night on the last Sunday evening of every month. Currently this is being held online, over Zoom. See our website, newsletter, open mic Facebook Group, or Instagram for monthly details.

Newsletter

Send an email to the society to sign up for our monthly newsletter to stay up to date on the latest guitar news and event details!
