Mission

The OGS's purpose is to foster understanding, appreciation and the study of the guitar, and to bring together all those who desire to further these aims.

Vision

That the OGS be the nexus for Ottawa-area based guitar artistry.

Objectives

With a focus on classical and/or nylon-string guitar:

Creating opportunities for all levels of guitar artistry.

Formative growth for personal and professional guitar-craft development.

Community building by bringing all levels of guitarists together and sharing.

Organizational Values

The following Organizational Values are core to all OGS undertakings or activities.

Mutual respect – of, and for, all involved.

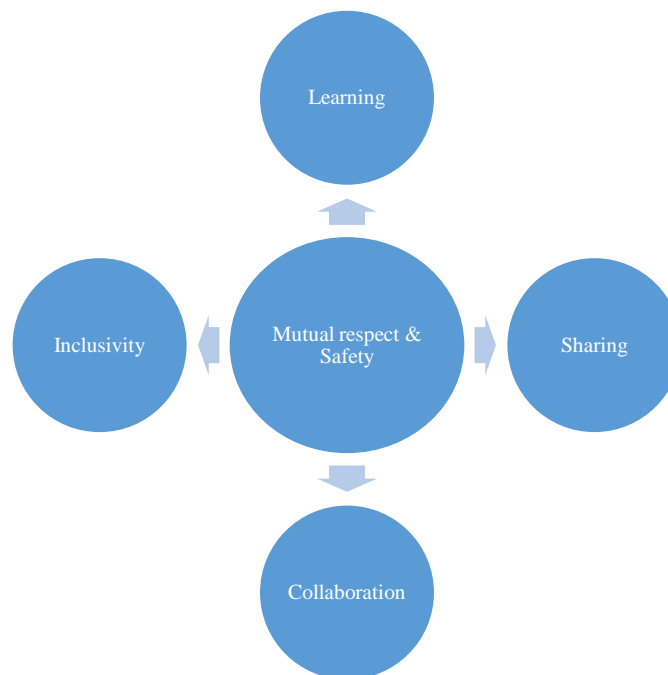

Safety – physical and psychological for all, towards a conducive sharing and learning environment that allows mistakes to learn from and grow.

Sharing – at any moment, anyone involved can be a giver and/or a taker.

Learning – in all of its forms: master to learner, peer-to-peer, informal or formal all are welcome to gain knowledge around the guitar.

Inclusivity – to be part of the action or the audience regardless of playing ability.

Collaboration – working together to achieve the objectives

Declaration of Services

Through education and performance-related activities, the OGS will serve the Ottawa-area guitar community by a) providing access to world/national/provincial-class guitar artistry; and b), by highlighting/showcasing local guitar artistry.
